Vigil

WEARING red, white and blue ribbons, and "Support Our Troops" stickers, over 300 people crowded into American Legion Post 81 in Leitchfield Sunday afternoon for a Candlelight Vigil staged in honor of Grayson County servicemen and women serving in the Persian Gulf war. After welcoming ceremonies, prayers, and a message from the speaker, Rev. Harry Lewis, the lights were lowered and a solemn record listened as each soldier's name was called and a family member or friend stepped forward to light a candle. Afterwards, quiet tears fell as Lee Greenwood's song, "God Bless the USA," was played. Above, Legion Commander Tom Wortham and Auxiliary President Mary Nell Miller hold candles lit in honor of all military men and women. At right, LCpl. Gregory S. Ashley's mother, Freda and wife, Wanda, light candles.--Photos by Edna Duggins.

No foul play ruled in death

By DARRELL ISENBERG

The Grayson County Coroner's office conducted a investigation last weekend following the death of a Grayson County man, but foul play is not suspected.

The body of Dale Wiley, 77, of Aaneta Road, Leitchfield, was found at his home Saturday morning.

According to Deputy Coroner Kevin Pharis, preliminary autopsy results conducted by the State Medical Examiner's office in Louisville, showed that Wiley suffered from coronary heart disease and apparently died of natural causes.

Pharis estimated that Wiley had been dead four days or more.

According to Grayson County Sheriff Quhi Escue, his office was notified Friday evening by a representative of the Department of Human Resources, to check on Wiley and his sister Ruth, 73, who is mute and a double amputee.

DHR said neighbors were concerned about the welfare of the two since they had not been heard from in several days.

Escue said deputies Mike Woosley, Byron Logsdon and David Simon went to the residence which was secured by an electronic gate. Escue said the deputies were attacked by three vicious dogs.

Logsdon said dogs attacked his cruiser and pulled a tire from the rim. Logsdon said a wrecker was used to tow the vehicle from the scene.

Deputies returned to the residence Saturday along with Kentucky State Police Trooper David Lee. Authorities managed to lure two of the dogs into a trailer by using food. The third dog was destroyed, according to Deputy Logsdon.

Logsdon said Wiley was found lying in the living-dining room area of the home.

Logsdon said when authorities entered the residence, the smell of gas was prevalent throughout the house. Logsdon said apparently the tank of gas used to heat the house had run out and the pilot light had extinguished causing the smell of gas in the dwelling.

Miss Wiley was transported by the Grayson County EMS to Grayson County Hospital for treatment.

Arrangements for Mr. Wiley are under the direction of the Radcliffe Funeral Home in La Grange.

Council discusses railroad crossings on 3 city streets

By EDNA DUGGINS

Troublesome railroad crossings on three streets in Leitchfield were discussed by the city council Monday night.

Councilwoman Anna Rea Kinkade said she had received several complaints about the rough crossings on the Sunbeam and Salt River roads.

Councilman Wales Montgomery added that the crossing on Hwy. 54 "will knock the bottom out of your car."

Public Works Supervisor Darrell Harrell said the State Department of Highways and the P & L Railroad Company had been contacted by the city about the crossings. Some repairs were made, Harrell indicated, but they were not sufficient.

"I don't see why they can't all be fixed like the one on Brandenburg Road," Montgomery said, referring to a crossing that was much improved several years ago.

Harrell was directed by the council to once again contact the state and railroad company, requesting immediate repairs at each of the crossings.

In other business, the council heard the second reading of an annexation ordinance for a section of property in east Leitchfield. The ordinance was adopted.

The city's quarterly financial report was also reviewed. The report indicated that the city is running 55 percent to budgeted revenues and 53 percent to budgeted expenses.

The council will meet again Feb. 14.

Clarkson third graders observe 100th day of school, pay tribute to military personnel

By DARRELL ISENBERG

With only 75 more school days remaining, some Clarkson third graders celebrated the 100th day of school last week.

"We used several different types of reading methods to help celebrate the 100th day of school," said teacher Joyce Duvall.

"Some students were 100 buttons or other items; most worked on poster projects involving items totaling 100; some brought items from home," she said.

It's all part of a new visual math program being taught by Duvall. Other visual math classes are taught to second graders and in kindergarten at Clarkson.

"This is my first year at teaching visual math and so far it has been pretty successful," she commented. "We like to call it "Math Within A Mind's Eye."

Duvall said the program had been in use for a number of years in Jefferson and other counties across the state.

During the 100th day celebration Wednesday, the students also used 100 balloons to remember the servicemen and women on the balloons. "That's their way of honoring them," she said. "They recently conducted a letter writing campaign and sent letters to local military personnel.

"I don't try to hide anything from them in the classroom; we sometimes watch news reports on television and we look at newspapers. They're very aware of what's taking place."

THIRD GRADERS from Joyce Duvall's class at Clarkson Elementary School observed the 100th day of school last week. The class worked on projects using new visual math technique. The group also honored local military personnel by writing soldiers' names on 100 balloons.

Authorities investigating attempted cattle theft

By DARRELL ISENBERG

The Grayson County Sheriff's Office and Kentucky State Police investigated an attempted cattle theft that took place late Sunday in Grayson County.

According to Sheriff Quhi Escue, thieves took a 1989 GMC 250 4-wheel drive truck belonging to Percy Alexander of Aaneta Road, Leitchfield, sometime Sunday night or early Monday morning.

Also stolen was a goose-neck trailer belonging to Alexander.

Escue said the subjects then went to the J.C. Lee and Sons, Inc. farm located on the Grayson Springs-Clarkson Road, and attempted to load an undetermined amount of livestock.

Escue said several head of livestock had been put in a holding pen in a feed lot on the Lee property. Escue said the subjects apparently got the trailer stuck in mud and were unable to load the cattle.

According to Kentucky State Police Trooper Mike Riley, the subjects are believed to have unhooked the truck and drove to Clarkson where they stole another goose-neck trailer from Central Mining, located on U.S. 62.

Riley said the truck and trailer were driven through gates at the milling company.

Riley said the subjects then went back to the Lee property and again attempted to load the cattle, but the second trailer also became mired down in mud.

Riley said both trailers were recovered. The subjects, however, fled the scene in the stolen truck.

Escue said the attempted theft could have resulted in the loss of a number of cattle.

"It was one time that muddy conditions were good; it prevented the loss of a number of head of livestock," Escue commented.

Escue said no arrests have been made as of Monday but an investigation into the incident is continuing.

Legislative Update: Comments from State Rep. Richie Sanders

By State Representative
Richie Sanders

For the past weeks, I've been reporting the details of the bills that have raced through the legislative process during the early stages of the special session. During this third week, however, we are finally beginning to resolve the more controversial bills that were scrutinized carefully by legislative committees.

The principal reason for our coming to Frankfort is the issue of solid waste management. The Senate Natural Resources and Environment Committee has held lengthy, late night hearings on the Governor's proposal and has discharged that bill to the full Senate. We will probably get our chances to look over the bill in the House starting next week.

The Governor's bill relies heavily on regional waste managment districts having the flexibility and authority to accept waste according to their own plans. While the Senate panel has left that concept largely in place, they have made some fine tuning adjustments that we will review in the House. I will keep you updated on the developments that are made in the course of passing this crucial legislation.

Back in the House, a compromise was reached this week on what might have turned out to be the most controversial issue of the session-a return of more coal severance money to coal producing counties.

Coal-area legislators have long contended that the coal producing counties should be getting more severance money back to prepare for the day when coal resources are depleted. But there was concern among some lawmakers with amending the budget at this time. Leading advocates for the coal legislators settled on a compromise that includes the passage of a resolution that requires the General Assembly to study the issue until the next regular session. Many observers feel this compromise helps the chances of a severance return increase to start in mid-1992.

The last bill we passed before adjourning for the week was designed to correct a recent Supreme Court decision which declared our anti-vote-buying statute unconstitutionally vague. Because we have important elections coming up this year, we needed to pass some form of legislation to prevent dishonest and tainted campaign practices. I am confident the bill that passed should help clean up the process in time for the gubernatorial races.

During this past week, Parr Vinson of Leitchfield, came to Frankfort and discussed with me her concerns relative to the funding of Communicare Industries. While the Leitchfield facility will remain open, because of the tremendous local support, other funding options need to be explored for this most worthwile project during the 1992 session.

Also, the Agriculture Chairman, Rep. Clay Crupper, along with Rep. Donnie Gelding and myself attended a meeting with Louisville Mayor Jerry Abramson concerning the announcement of the closing of the Armour Meat Processing Plant. We advised Mayor Abramson that we would be willing to help in any way possible to keep Armour in business in Louisville. Since our area has pork producers who would be greatly affected by shipping costs in transporting their livestock to other plants if this closing occurs.

The momentum of the session will surge when we return next week to take up the matter of DUI legislation and financial benefits for our soldiers in Operation Desert Storm. I will give you a full accounting of its passage when I report again next week. Until that time, please continue to share you thoughts with my by dialing 1-800-372-7181.

Thanks for candlelight vigil

Dear Editor:

I want to express my thanks to the Ladies Auxiliary of the American Legion Post 81 for the candlelight vigil on Jan. 3 for our servicemen and women.

I know it took a lot of planning and hard work. It made my heart swell with pride to know how much Grayson County supports our troops in the Middle East.

Again, thank you and God Bless you all.

I also want to thank Veda Newton and Carlene Armstrong for starting the support group.

Margaret Braner,
Mother of Sgt. Henry L. Skaggs Jr., 82nd Air Borne Division, Saudi Arabia.

Writer thanks community

Dear Editor:

Several months ago I wrote you requesting cards, letters, visits to my father, Felix M. Pile of Madrid, located in adjoining Breckinridge County. The response was tremendous, from friends of old and total strangers. He enjoyed and deeply appreciated each card, letter and yes some of your readers actually visited my dad in Glasgow.

Since that time, my dad has been transferred to the Leitchfield Health Care Manor, Room 120, Leitchfield.

Shortly after writing you I was stricken with a severe illness and am just now beginning to resume normal activities.

A personal thank you to each individual, church group and club that responded would indeed be appropriate with a special thank you to each student at your middle school. Since I'm unable to respond individually, may I again call on you to extend my gratitude and appreciation to your kind readers.

Should any others might wish to write my dad or even visit with him since he's now in your midst. The address is: Felix Pile, Room 120, Leitchfield Health Care Manor, Leitchfield, Ky 42754. Again, I'm eternally grateful. Thank you.

Sincerely,
Ann Morgan

Writer rebukes Lee column

Dear Editor:

This letter is regarding the Dec. 20, 1990 issue of the Grayson County News-Gazette in which was dedicated over 4 one-half page columns to "Health Matters" written by Nadyne Lee. In this edition of her column, Mrs. Lee addresses a mother's concern on the possible homosexual tendencies of her 11-year-old son.

Mrs. Lee is surely misguided in her views on this issue. She promotes homosexuality in this article and indicates the concerns of the father warrant his seeking therapy.

In her column, Mrs. Lee says: "Most homosexuals are well-adjusted, God-fearing, country-loving, productive members of our society. Our lives are enriched by the life and work of our homosexual brothers and sisters."

This statement clearly implies that Mrs. Lee sees no wrong in being homosexual. She obviously misunderstands God's Word on this subject.

Mrs. Lee states: "Religious young teens who have learned from the church that homosexuality is wrong may feel confused when they recognize that they have no choice about their sexual orientation."

Mrs. Lee's implication that God made them that way, suggests we serve an imperfect God.

Christians are not perfect, but should be in God's Word, and should be able to distinguish between right and wrong.

God clearly tells us in Deuteronomy 23:17-18 that homosexual acts are an abomination unto the Lord. Also in Leviticus 18:22-30 and 20:13.

In Genesis 19:14 & 24, the reason for the destruction of Sodom and Gomorrah is clearly stated. The homosexual acts of the men caused God to destroy the entire place with fire and brimstone.

Don't allow anyone, but God through his Word to show you the truth on homosexuality or any other matter. Search out the truth that is in the Holy Word of God; keep your eyes on Jesus Christ, because he will never fail you. Pray for those involved in this sinful lifestyle and every other type of sin. Pray that their hearts will be opened up to the Holy Word of God and that they will receive Jesus Christ as their personal Savior.

Having morals, or doing good works, will not get you into Heaven. The only way to get to Heaven is stated in John 3:3-21.

This letter is not written to condemn the homosexual, the Bible plainly tells us that "God so loved the world," that included the homosexual. The love of God is unconditional; however to receive eternal life, there is a condition. We must repent (turn away from) our sins and receive Christ is our Savior. As we stated, God loves the homosexual, but He abhores the sin of homosexuality.

Sincerely, Ronnie Dowell
Calvert Church Pastor

Domestic violence affects many

Dear Editor:

As chairman of the board for the Lincoln Trail Domestic Violence Program, I received a letter from a daughter of a senior citizen mother who sought shelter from domestic abuse during the months of August, September and October 1990 at the crisis center in Elizabethtown. In addition to providing emotional support, the director and staff assisted her with acquiring financial and medical care.

Domestic violence affects persons of all ages and socio-economic levels. It does not discriminate between the young and the old or the poor and the rich.

The Lincoln Trail Domestic Violence Program is an independent, non-profit agency which offers 24 hour assistance, 7 days a week to anyone experiencing spousal/partner violence and their dependent children. Services are provided at no cost to the victim. Call 1-800-767-5838 for help immediately.

Domestic violence is no accident, it is a crime.

The board discussed hospital expansion plans. The concept design is expected to be completed sometime this month and the hospital administration hopes to begin the bidding process by summer.

The expansion project is expected to cost $3 million.

Woodmen of World Lodge serves county

Woodmen of the World Lodge 109 has held a broad spectrum of activities during the year and has made a large number of accomplishments.

According to Paul Quiggins, secretary, it is impossible to know exactly how many people benefited by the lodge's efforts during the year as a number of other groups and clubs such as the Cub Scouts, schools were helped during the year.

The club supplied 40 flags or flag sets to churches, schools and other organizations. The Rough River Lakeshore Clean-up and adopt-a-highway projects captured a large amount of the lodge's attention.

According to Quiggins, human suffering was made a little easier by the group's efforts to lend hospital beds and wheel chairs to individuals. They also provided newspapers for the hospital and nursing homes and the construction of a wheel chair ramp and concrete walk for a wheel chair patient.

A number of fire victims who lost their personal belongings were helped by the lodge. Money, clothing and furniture was donated to help them recover.

Quiggins said at least 10 families were helped with extreme financial emergencies beyond their control. The lodge helped by arranging for heat, water or fuel, or in rare cases, by giving them money.

Seventeen needy families were provided with baskets containing complete Thanksgiving dinners for the entire family.

The lodge also sponsored their own Ranger Lodge, providing a meeting/camping place for the Cub Scouts. They helped with Camp Quality, Community ACtion Camp for children, and provided funding for the Caneyville Ballpark. They also were able to take disadvantaged children to stores to buy clothes and toys at Christmas time.

"Special Olympics" uniforms were purchased for the athletes of the Grayson County Association for the Mentally Handicapped and also helped fund their bowling program.

Fire hoses and nozzles were given to the Caneyville Fire Department.

Quiggins said the sound in the Caneyville School gym was also much improved because of contributions made to purchase new acoustical materials.

Quiggins said the lodge spent a total of $12,000 on various projects and 30-40 manhours per week were donated by volunteers to raise money for the projects.

Pine Knob

By Mrs. Proctor Litsey

Neighbor, Lester Young, has seen a robin and a couple of gaggles of geese, neither headed due north nor due south. At least we know they are not extinct.

Alha Pearl (Billy) Shain Paul of New Mexico called Harris Likins last week to tell of the recent passing of her husband, John. Being a cousin of Lillian Likins and not knowing about her death, both she and Harris had a shock. Billy was reared in Pine Knob, the daughter of Bessie Deweese and Ben Shain and then lived in Louisville a few years and then moved west for health reasons.

Hollis Boone says thank you to his many friends who remembered him with birthday cards.

Lucille Morris entertained last Sunday with a dinner in the honor of him and his oldest son, Bob, whose birthday is soon. Others enjoying the occasion besides the "birthday boys" were Wilma Boone and Lester and Agelene Young.

Irene Coulter was a guest of Jim and Pattie Lindsey on last Sunday at Jim's parents home, I believe in Edmonson County.

Oecie Berg and daughter, Delores Massey were in Danville a day last week when Delores was having preliminaries for eye surgery that she will soon be having.

Also apologies to Oecie for laying it on her to give a book report on Elvis Presley. Delores is the lady for that job.

Roger and Brenda Carwile visited his parents, Wilma and O. L. last week.

Agelene and Lester Young paid a short visit to Elsie Miller, Clarkson, Friday.

Agelene and Anna Kinsell visited Lucille Morris Tuesday morning.

Gabrielle and Jr. Shain were in Nashville Tuesday.

Our get-well wishes and thoughts are with these friends who are ill. Arthur Pharris, Jewish Hospital, had surgery and a stroke followed. Gladys Brooks is at the local hospital for the third week. Murriel White of Tousey is a patient at the local hospital. Also to those whose names I didn't mention and there is lots of illnesses including Cara Brooks and the other children with chicken pox.

Proctor and I visited Doris and Roger Green, Sallie and Kristofer a short time on Friday afternoon.

Happy February birthdays to: Hollis Boone, Hillard Woosley and Teresa Small, Feb. 2; Gene Tilford, Feb. 3; Grant Allan Buckles, Clara Crogan, Sedalia Huff Woosley and Zethia Dixon, Feb. 4; Greg Skaggs, Feb. 5; Nina Ruth Ray, the former Rita Woosley and former President Reagan, Feb. 6; Lacy Vincent, Beth Cook and Terri O'Leary, Feb. 7; Scott and Jeff Majors and Archie Frank, Feb. 8; Mary J. Kibbell, Danny Bozarth and Erba Lee, Feb. 9; Allan White and Dwayne Embry, Feb. 10; Bob Edrington, Feb. 11; Christine Boone, Feb. 12; and Florene Johnson, Feb. 13.

Happy anniversary to these couples, Louise and Jim Johnson, Feb. 10 and Ed and Ella Mae Nichols, Feb. 13.

Sunday School lesson

THE FRIEND AT MIDNIGHT. (Luke 11:5-13)

"Everyone that asketh receiveth; and he that seeketh findeth; and to him that knocketh it shall be opened (Luke 11:10)."

Today's study is the second of four lessons under the title, "Stories of Christian Living and Service." The events leading up to today's study was in Jerusalem in the area of the temple, and was during a very busy time for Jesus. He had sent out seventy on a preaching and healing ministry, and they returned joyous. In reply to a lawyer's question Jesus had told the parable of the good Samaritan. Following these events and encounters, Jesus and the twelve left Jerusalem and traveled to Bethany, where He was asked to settle a family dispute between Martha and Mary. We may rightly assume, I believe, that Jesus was exhausted, and needed to get away from the turmoil of Jerusalem; the crowds, His constant teaching, His disciples and the conflicts with Jewish religious leaders. as was His custom in times like these He retreated to prayer, private prayer to His Heavenly Father. Verse one sets the stage for today's Bible lesson. "And it came to pass, that, as He was praying in a certain place, when he ceased, one of His disciples said unto Him, "Lord teach us to pray...(Verse 1)." Jesus responded by giving His apostles the model prayer (Verses 2-4)."

THE MIDNIGHT BORROWER. (Luke 11:5-8)

How many of we Christians who, like the apostles, have felt the need for instruction in prayer? I dare say that most of us have, and still do. This parable is unlike most of Jesus' parables which teaches a spiritual truth represented by a material fact. This parable represents actions of people as examples, good or bad, to be imitated or avoided. Luke alone, of the Gospel writers, recorded this parable. It teaches persistance in our prayer petitions and is grounded in a father and child relationship. My father was a minister. One of his contempories was an evangelist from Texas. I recall, as a boy, a conversation between Sam and my father and it impressed me greatly although I remember only a tittle of it. Sam said to my dad, "Perry, when a man is in need, he ought to hang his hat on the wall, get down on his knees and not get up until his prayer is answered." Faith and persistance! That was good teaching and I have always been thankful for it. The story for today's lesson involves a man who had a friend that stopped at his home to spend the night. The homeowner was out of bread so he went to a neighbor's house to borrow bread so that he could feed his friend. The neighbor, because of the late hour, had gathered his family into the house and locked the doors and had gone to bed. Familiar to day and time, the neighbor probably lived in a one room structure and his children probably slept on pallets lying about the floor. Not wanting to distrub them, most probably, he hesitated to light a lamp and unlock the door, but the man persisted until the neighbor unlocked the house and gave him some loaves of bread. Let us note, foremost here, that our Father, to whom we bring our needs, never sleeps and there is no wrong nor inconvenient time for us to call upon Him. After having set the principal truth to be taught, Jesus began to apply the teaching.

THE EFFECTIVE PETITIONER. (Luke 11:9-13)

"...Ask and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find...(Verse 9.)" The thrust of the message found in verses nine and ten sound at first like a signed blank check, but this is not so. What Jesus made here was a general statement, void of details, qualifications and exceptions. In His more complete teachings about prayer He spelled out such qualifying essentials. Basic in these are faith, trust, motive and one's spiritual condition. A word to caution; selfishness and materialism give one little to base a petition to the Lord upon.

Anneta Homemakers file report

How has 1990 slipped by so quickly and here it is February already. The Anneta Homemakers met Dec. 13 at the home of Carrell Faler for their Christmas Party. Her home was beautifully decorated, we exchanged gifts and had a potluck dinner. No formal meeting was held except Bobby Landes discussed the Volunteer Service Log each member is to maintain.

Our January meeting was held Jan. 10 at the Anneta V.F.D. building with 14 members present. Roll call was answered by each member giving their birth month and birthstone. Carrell Faler gave a devotional on "Dilemma" which was very appropriate. Nancy Westmoreland read the minutes from our November meeting and gave her financial report. We still have a supply of Anneta Homemakers Cookbooks on hand for a low price of $5. They make lovely Valentine, Mother's Day or just "whatever" gifts. Anyone interested in purchasing them may contact Martha Jean Elmore at 242-6398 or any Anneta Homemaker member. After lunch, Carrell Faler gave an art lesson on water color painting.

It was decided to make wash cloths bunnies at our February meeting which will be held at the Anneta V.F.D. building on the 14. Please remember to bring your supplies for the bunnies, a covered dish as well as a "brown bag" item. We invite anyone to visit our meetings in the hope they will join. You do not have to be an artist, seamstress, just willing to join in and have a good time and fellowship.

As usual our meetings were conducted by our very capable president, Mary Ann Horn.

Pharmacy & Your Health

BEN DUVALL — CARMEL POWELL

Proper Use of Inhalers in Asthma Treatment

Asthma is a common lung condition that affects more than 9 million Americans (about four percent of the population). According to a recent issue of the Mayo Clinic Proceedings, asthma is the most common chronic condition treated by pediatricians and the leading cause of childhood disability. Medically, asthma is a narrowing or obstruction of the small air passages in the lungs. Typically, asthma causes chest tightness, breathlessness, wheezing, and coughing.

Prescription medicines given by way of a metered-dose inhaler have been found to be effective in treating asthma. Such medicines include albuterol, terbutaline, and metaproterenol. Some studies have shown that very few patients actually use metered dose inhalers correctly. The most common problem relates to inhaling and holding the breath for the proper amount of time. The correct procedure, according to most references is: remove the inhaler cap; shake the inhaler container; hold the container upright; tilt the head back slightly; inhale and exhale through the mouth or nose normally; seal the lips on the inhaler mouthpiece; breathe in slowly and deeply through the mouth to activate the inhaler; hold the breath for 10 seconds; exhale slowly through the nose; use one puff of medication; wait 30 to 60 seconds before administering another puff.

In Memory of
Taylor VanMeter
Who passed away Jan. 29, 1989

Once a little old man, quietly sitting there. Rocking to and fro in his old chair. His face was deeply wrinkled, his hair was silvery gray, his eyes were softly shadowed. He was thinking of past days.

Two hands folded in repose tell legends of his many woes. The rose in his cheek no longer displayed for from the far side all his little ones had strayed.

But on his brow deep contentment lies, for he had fulfilled the vows to him in the skies. Patiently awaiting the call to better days.

Belated birthday wishes to my son, John Craig; my son-in-law, Jerry Shepherd; and my precious grandson, Nickalos Shepherd. Happy birthday as well to Jason Woolen, Randall Lambert, Chad Chapman, Justin Mattingly, Megan Denton, Penny Purgerson, Marvin Robinson and a good friend, Helen McDaniel, a very happy birthday to you all.

At Professional Care Home in Fordsville, the following have birthdays coming up. If you know them, send them a card, a little thing means so much to a shut-in: Mattie Belt, Bertha Calloway, Anna Brown, Ruby Spivey, Martine Gray, Clifton Wilson and Carl Hudson.

Sympathy is extended to a former resident of the Shiloh area, Nell Barton and her family on the death of a cousin, George Phillips.

Louise McDaniel spent several days in Bowling Green with her daughter, Jan Duvall and her new baby girl, Tesse Morgan Duvall. Jan and Greg are proud to announce the birth of their precious daughter.

Erma Decker and this writer spent several days in Owensboro recently visiting doctors and shopping. Erma is feeling a lot better after her stay at the hospital and wishes to thank all that called and sent her cards.

Venta Morris, Willie Pearl, Alvey Oller and I attended the funeral of Robert Randall Crumes and visited the Green Cemetery, where Alvey and I both have great-grandparents buried, Hannah Allen and James William Oller.

Lark Veteto and Gloria Fitzpatrick traveled to Leitchfield recently to pay our respects to two former Yeaman residents, Imogene Decker Brown and Doris Duncan Beatty.

Sympathy is extended to the Beatty family. Doris passed away Jan. 15. She is the cousin of two Olaton residents, Lark Veteto and Alvey Oller. Doris was at Ellis-Meyes Funeral Home in Leitchfield and was put to rest at Yeaman Cemetery. She leaves one daughter and three sons, several grandchildren and sisters.

Imogene Decker Brown passed away in Texas at her daughter's where she went after she became ill. Imogene passed away after a terminal illness. She was at Dermitt Funeral Home in Leitchfield and was laid to rest at Yeaman Cemetery. Sympathy is extended to her mother Dale Decker, her children and brothers and sisters.

Serving in Desert Storm from this area are my son-in-law, Larry Griffin; Barry Autry, grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Renfrow; and Phillip Dye, son of Pat and Mike Dye, nephew of Jo Nell Woolen.

We all want peace and soldiers at home. Today is the time for all of us to put our full support behind our service men and women in the Gulf or wherever they are stationed and pray for their safe return.

Hank and Brenda Schillingtow were our pastors at Shiloh Methodist Church recently. Afterwards they stopped to see Versie Beatty, who has not been able to attend church for a long time. Versie was very glad to see them.

We learned that a former pastor of Shiloh, Rev. Gene Lovell, who was a pastor at the Methodist Church in Leitchfield for awhile, has recently been called up in the Reserves to serve in the war. We wish him well.

Erma Decker, Gloria Fitzpatrick, Paul, Melissa and Jonathan Lambert traveled to Owensboro recently where we attended an auto show and shopped at the mall.

Mary Jessie Mattingly and Josephine Reynolds visited their niece, Kim and her husband, Steve and two sons, and Michael Bennett in Hartford.

Erma Decker attended the funeral of Doris Beatty and Imogene Decker Brown. Louise McDaniel went with her.

I would like to say hello to Josephine Young, Ruby Duncan and Jean Roof.

Visiting Juanita Downey recently was her son, David and family.

Jack Floyd is home from the hospital but is in need of our prayers.

Our prayers are also needed for Forrest Renfrow.
